This is the waterfront beauty you have been waiting for. You enter the front door and look through the home to the water out back. There is a generous dining room with ample wall space for furniture and large enough to fit the whole family during the holidays. A formal room with dramatic high ceilings and beautiful hardwood floors is just ahead. The first floor master bedroom has a tray ceiling and a turret styled sitting area on the front of the home with a luxury master bath on the back. The kitchen goes on forever with loads of cabinets for storage and ample counter space for food preparation. It is open to a keeping room on the back of the home all with water view, and access to the deck. Upstairs is a large step down bedroom over the garage and three additional rooms, two of which share a Jack and Jill bath. The orange and red sunsets over Town Farm Creek are stunning. Launch a kayak from your back yard or build a pier to the deep water.
