You are going to love watching the sunrise over the Pagan river from your screened porch while enjoying your morning coffee. This elegant two story brick home with first floor bedroom and bath offers two screened porches. First off the kitchen and the second off the master bedroom. The large formal living room is ideal for a home office or music room. The formal dining room is large enough for the whole family during the holiday and has great wall space for a china hutch. The eat in kitchen has ample granite counter space for food preparation and lots of cabinets for storage. The large master suite includes a nicely appointed five piece bathroom and a tremendous walk in closet. Two more upstairs bedrooms adjoin a jack and jill bathroom. The walk up attic is huge with great potential for future expansion. Lots of energy efficient upgrades have been added throughout the home. Walk to the yacht club with pool, tennis, and boat slips available.
